

RULES

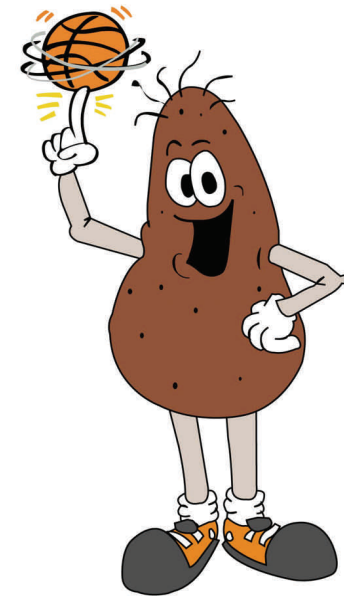

1. Games are played to 16 points by one point baskets (win by one) or a 15-minute time limit.
2. A two-point shot line will be in effect.
3. The ball will change hands after each score.
4. Play will start from beyond the two- point line with any change of position.
5. Substitution is permitted after a score.
6. Courtside monitors will call fouls, keep score, keep time, settle any disputes, and their final decisions will be final.
7. Fouls result in possession of the ball. After 5 fouls, a foul results in one- point .
8. One 1-minute time-out per team will be permitted; time-outs will stop the 15-minute game clock.
9. Flagrant fouls, hanging on the rim, misconduct, rough play, abusive language or use of unregistered players may result in forfeiture and dismissal from the tournament.
10. In the event of a tie, a sudden death over-time will be played. The first team to score wins. First possession decided by coin toss.
